RHIGOLENE!

The Greatest Discovery of the Age!

BETTER THAN LAUGHING GAS!

There is no longer any necessity for you to "go to sleep," with the risk of never awakening, for your can now have your teeth extracted "and know everything that is going on," and yet not experience the slightest pain. 'Tis strange but true, and by calling upon Dr. Quincy A. Scott, and examining his new process, you will be convinced. He gives a full set of artificial teeth, with beautiful gums, for $8, such as others charge $10 for; a full set for $10, which others charge $12 for, and a full set for from $12 to $15, which he will guarantee to be better than can be made at any other establishment, at any price. He gives Laughing Gas free of charge, in every case, and makes no charge for extracting when artificial teeth are ordered.

N. B.—Other parties have advertised this new agent before they were prepared to use it; in fact before they were supplied with the necessary apparatus, but the public are assured that Dr. Scott never advertises anything but what he is prepared to do. Remember his number—278 Penn street, third door above Hand.—Pittsburgh Post.

The Following Letter

Written to Dr. Sill, 25 Penn street, speaks volumes for that establishment. Drs. Sill & Gillispie form the most popular Dental firm in Pittsburgh:

"CONNEAUT, (Ohio,) June 9th, 1866.

Dr. Sill, Pittsburgh, Pa.—Dear Sir.—I improve the earliest opportunity to express my satisfaction with the operation you performed for me on Thursday last, extracting teeth with forceps without breaking and with no injury to the jaw, which an educated and experienced Dentist decided could only be extracted by splitting, levers and screws, &c. Having had considerable experience in the administration of chloroform and ether, and take it either myself, I can appreciate your favorite anesthetic, Nitro-Oxid Gas, for when properly prepared and skillfully given, as in the case in your establishment I consider it far preferable to any other—safe, potent and agreeable.

Truly yours, S. A. ROBINSON, M. D."

Public Nuisances.

Mr. John M. Read, one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, in a case before him, a few days ago, laid down, most emphatically, the law upon the Nature and Abatement of Nuisances. The matter came before him on a complaint against the erection and maintenance of a Planing Mill. At the outset, the Judge laid down the general principles governing the case. In a city like ours, where mills, foundries and workshops of every description abound, the decision creates considerable uneasiness and excitement. But as our prosperity and wealth are dependent upon the same, we trust no trouble will accrue from the recent interpretation of the law. On the other hand we have enough of Public Benefits to counterbalance the number of nuisances of the character in the city. For instance the well known and prosperous shoe store, which is patronized by everybody—Robinson's, 31 Market street. A new stock has just been received and will be sold at ruinously low prices. Boots, shoes gaiters and slippers of the latest and most fashionable styles on hand, which will please the most fastidious.

"Too Late! Too Late"!!

We heard a gentleman yesterday regret that he had not in his possession a photograph of a near and dear departed relative. Speaking of a beautiful cabinet picture now in the art window of B. L. H. Dabbs, 26 St. Clair street, he said he would give one thousand dollars for as faithful a picture of his deceased relative. Everybody should have the photographs of their friends taken, and we can safely recommend Mr. Dabbs as one of the best artists in this line in America. His prices are very reasonable and his work is superior to that of any Eastern artist.

A Handsome Article.

A city parlor is incomplete without a handsome chandelier dependant from the ceiling. Messrs. Ewens & Co., No. 1 Wood street, have the finest selection of chandaliers, globes and pendants in the city. They attend to all kinds of gas, steam and water fitting, and their work is warranted to prove durable and satisfactory. Bath tubs, sinks, basins, &c., set in the most approved style at the most reasonable rates.

The Milliners

Must be versatile geniuses, judging from the number of styles for bonnets they have produced this season. At present there are no less than ten varieties counting the fame of the ladies. Pittock, opposite the post office, has albums, gold pens, wallets, &c., at the lowest prices.

Rare Works of Art.

The windows of B. L. H. Dabbs, the popular photographic artist, still remain the great object of attraction on St. Clair street. In clear or cloudy weather the best of sun-shadows may be obtained at this beautiful Gallery.

An Excursion Party.

Of twenty couples, left the Monongahela landing, Friday morning, on the steamer Franklin, and as the fine steamer drifted out into the stream, the young Germania Band, of Allegheny, Mr. W. H. Hipple leader, enlivened the embarkation by their lively strains. The day being very fine, Old Sol smiling on the happy party in the boat. Above Glenwood the music was called to the cabin, where they laid aside their brass for the string instruments, then the fantastic tripping of pretty feet began. At Lock No. 2 the party received quite an accession of ladies and gentlemen. Kindness and courtesy being a marked trait in the character of the gentlemen getting up the affair, Messrs. McKee and Davis. The band played some excellent pieces of music for the benefit of the inhabitants of Port Perry, which was acknowledged by the waving of many handkerchiefs and the greeting of smiling faces as we left. Everything passed so pleasantly, and time so rapidly, it appeared but a short time until we entered Lock No. 3, where we met the steamer Gallatin on her homeward trip. Cheers were exchanged, little flags of truce waved from each guard, and we passed on to Monongahela City, where the boat received and discharged quite a quantity of freight. (Success to the Brownsville Packet Line for a better or more accommodating set of men never trod a plank.) Here we parted with a young friend on his way to celebrate one of the great events of man's life—the taking to himself a wife. May never a wave of trouble roll across their peaceful path. Just before reaching Monongahela City we partook of a dinner that would have graced the table of the Presidential mansion on a festal occasion. Time passed on. The Franklin danced the water as we kept time to the music in her cabin. Thus passed the afternoon until we landed at Brownsville, where we bade farewell to the captain and his gentlemanly clerk, Mr. Eckly. After a short stay we started on our homeward journey on the splendid Stephen Fayette, where we received every attention that gentlemen could possibly show their guests. The cabin of the Fayette being furnished with a piano, we listened to some excellent performances, and were delighted with the singing, which did credit to the performers. We were regale l by a supper gotten up on the Fayette, who has a jewel of a cook. After strolling for a while over the boat, the cabin was again prepared for our use, which was appreciated. A few persons joined us who came up on the evening boat, and some returned to Brownsville who had joined the party there, and about two o'clock the Fayette touched the Pittsburgh wharf, after one of the most pleasant day's ride ever enjoyed by yours truly. Among the party we noticed Messrs. Harry Phillips, Chas. Phillips, A. Barnett, Marcus Norton, Ben. Wood, (of No. 2,) M. Kehan, Charles B. Davis, J. L. McKee, and others we did not know. Will the management please accept our thanks for the card of invitation, and the officers of the boats for many kindnesses, and hope the same merry party may soon meet again.

A SPECIAL REPORTER.

Cheering Facts for the Bilious.

Every day demonstrates more clearly that Liver Complaint, in all its distressing forms, can be controlled or cured without difficulty or inconvenience. It is an obstinate disease, but its obstinacy is not proof against the pernicious, remedial and restorative operation of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. That genial corrective compels the organ to do its duty. It must secrete regularly and healthfully under the influence of the Bitters. Their action brings it back from a state of rebellion into perfect harmony with the laws of health. If there is costiveness, it disappears; if there is side-ache or back-ache, it ceases; if the skin and the whites of the eyes are tinged with superfluous bile, they recover their natural hue; if the appetite is gone, it returns; if the digestion is impaired, it is restored; in brief, whatever the symptoms of the complaint may be, and whatever the phase it has assumed, a cure is certain. Such are the uniform effects of this preparation where bilious disease has been already developed; but in cases where there is merely a constitutional tendency to liver complaint, it must be prevented throughout life by the regular use, in small quantities, of this palatable antidote. These are proven facts, and should be seriously pondered—or, rather, they should be promptly acted upon—by all persons of bilious habit.

Hostetter's Bitters

Are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates by Fleming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 84 Market street, corner of the Diamond and Market, near Fourth street.

Vegetable Juices.

The medicinal properties of plants depend more on a proper care of the juices than anything else. A man in England, some years ago, made a great reputation in curing rheumatism, by extracting the virtues from the plants while in a green state, which he used in that disease with perfect success, while the the dried plant would not produce the same effect to the same extent. It is for this reason that Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher has such wonderful effect in curing all diseases having their origin in a morbid condition of the blood, or in depraved and cachectic state of the system. The roots and herbs used in the manufacture of this Blood Searcher are all preserved in such a way as to prevent deterioration of their medicinal properties, hence its wonderful curative power. A restoration to health is sure to follow the use of this sublime remedy. The cures performed by it are numerous, and most of them are here in this city where the persons cured can be consulted as to their verity. Ask for Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher, and take no other. Price $1.50 per bottle.

A Good Family Medicine for Colds.

CLARKSVILLE, GREEN CO., PA.—I want to get a good family medicine for colds and coughs. Can you recommend anything reliable? J. H.

Yes. Dr. George H. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup, prepared by himself. We have used it in our family for ten years with the best of success, and have recommended it to others with similar results. Dr. Keyser is a regularly educated and conscientious physician, and his Pectoral is fully equal to all claimed for it. You will find some elaborate certificates in another column, which we can vouch for.—National Agriculturalist.

Cholera.

As the question is settled beyond dispute that we are to be visited by that most to be feared epidemic cholera, it behooves us all to use every precaution in our power to stay its progress, and there can be no more certain preventive than Roback's Scandinavian Remedies, keep the bowels open with the Pills and invigorate the system by the free use of Roback's Stomach Bitters, or, if the blood is thin, use the Purifier. No family should be found without these remedies. Keep the system in full vigor, and nothing is to be feared from disease or cholera.

We Notice That

Fleming, Druggist, No. 84 Market street, in addition to his large stock of drugs and patent medicine, has added the finest qualities of English and Scotch ales, porter, and brown stout. Fleming also keeps a very select stock of pure liquors for medical purposes.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT.

Respecting the Submission to State Legislatures of the Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The President to-day sent the following message to the Senate and House of Representatives: I submit to Congress a report of the Secretary of State, to whom was referred the concurrent resolution of the 18th instant, respecting a submission to the Legislatures of the States of an additional article to the Constitution of the United States. It will be seen from this report, that the Secretary of State had on the 16th instant transmitted to the Governors of the several States certified copies of the joint resolution passed on the 13th, proposing an amendment to the Constitution. Even in ordinary times a question of amending the Constitution must be justly regarded as of paramount importance. This importance is at the present time enhanced by the fact that the joint resolution was not submitted by the two Houses for the approval of the President and that of the thirty-six States which constitute the Union, eleven are excluded from representation in either House of Congress, although, with the single exception of Texas, they have been restored to all their functions as States, in conformity with the organized law of the land, and have appeared at the national capital by Senators and Representatives who have applied for, and been received, admission to the vacant seats; nor have the sovereign people of the nation been afforded an opportunity of expressing their views upon the important questions which the amendment involves. Grave doubts, therefore, may naturally and justly arise, as to whether the action of Congress is in harmony with the sentiment of the people, and whether State Legislatures elected without reference to such an issue, should be called upon by Congress to decide respecting the ratification of the proposed amendment.

Waiving the question as to the constitutional validity of the proceedings of Congress in the joint resolution proposing the amendment, or as to the merits of the article which it submits, though the executive department to the legislatures of the States, I deem it proper to observe that the steps taken by the secretary of State as detailed in the accompanying report are to be considered as purely ministerial, and in no sense whatever committing the Executive to an approval of the recommendation of the amendment to the State legislatures or to the people. On the contrary, a proper appreciation of the obligation to defend the Constitution, as well as of the interests of national order, harmony and union, and a difference for an enlightened public judgment, may at this time well suggest a doubt whether any amendment to the Constitution ought to be proposed by Congress and pressed on the Legislatures of the several States, as a test for admission until after the admission of such Senators and Representatives of the non-unrepresented States as have been elected and shall be chosen in conformity with the Constitution and Laws of the United States.

(Signed,) ANDREW JOHNSON.

Washington, D. C., June 22, 1866.

Appended to the above message is a communication from the Secretary of State, addressed to the President, in which he reports that on the 16th inst. he, in obedience to the Committee of the House of Representatives on Enrolled Bills, brought to this Department and completed the enrollment unanimously of the two Houses of Congress, which was thereupon received by the Secretary of State and deposited among the rolls of the Department, a copy of which is hereunto annexed. Thereupon the Secretary of State, on the 16th inst., in conformity with the proceeding which had adopted by him in 1865, in regard to the then proposed and afterwards adopted Congressional amendment of the United States, caused to be certified his own conformity in addressed certified copies of the annexed resolution to the Governors of the several States together with a certificate and circular letter. A copy of each of these communications is hereunto annexed.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
WASHINGTON, June 23, 1866.

To His Excellency the Governor of ——Sir—I have the honor to transmit an attested copy of a concurrent resolution of Congress proposing to the Legislatures of the several States a fourteenth article to the Constitution of the United States. The decisions of the Legislatures upon the subject are required by law to be communicated to this Department. An acknowledgment of the receipt of this communication is desired by mail.

Your Excellency's ob't servt.,

(Signed,) WM. H. SEWARD.

The accompanying papers are the certificates of a true copy of the concurrent resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution, and the Secretary's note or circular addressed to the Governors of the respective States.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Nominations of Postmasters Indefinitely Postponed—Death Penalty Commuted—Speculation Concerning the Adjournment of Congress—Samples of Cotton Sent In—Pensions Granted and Defeating Southern Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Quite a number of nominations of Postmasters which have accumulated before the Senate Postoffice Committee, were to-day indefinitely postponed, which is equivalent to a final rejection. A large number of other nominations otherwise kinds will remain unacted upon.

The President has commuted the death sentence of Wells, now four years convicted of killing negro soldiers while on duty. The evidence against the parties was purely circumstantial.

The Star says: The Republicans in Congress are waiting to hear from Tennessee before fixing a day for adjournment. Should a convention in that State ratify the amendment, the Senators and Representatives will be admitted at once, and a desire to do this prompts the delay.

The commissioner of agriculture is in receipt of several very superior samples of cotton grown in California and the Pacific Islands, which certainly give evidence of a promising future for those localities in the production of this indispensible staple. One package contains a specimen from 20,000 pounds of upland cotton grown on the Livermore and Chester, at Fort Tejon, Los Angeles Co., California, the yield of one hundred and fifteen acres. The cotton was picked and ginned so late that the early frosts destroyed a majority of the balls. About four hundred acres in all were planted last year, and the lot referred to was sold for twenty-seven cents per pound in gold.

As already stated, the government is prepared to proceed against delinquent and defaulting postmasters in the lately rebellious States. The total amount of this class of indebtedness is about three hundred thousand dollars, for which one hundred thousand has been paid on demand, and nearly the same amount put in process of collection. The general defence set up by these postmasters is that they should be credited with the stamps which they turned over to the Confederate government. Mr. Cohen, of Memphis, elect to the House of Representatives, claims over five thousand dollars, and Mr. Galloway, of Memphis, over nine thousand dollars. The postmaster at Memphis has paid over twelve thousand dollars under protest, intending to institute a suit for its recovery. It is generally believed that the amount can be collected, as the government will have the advantage of a very stringent attachment law, passed in view of such indebtedness.

THE TAX BILL.

NEW YORK, June 22.—The amendments to the new tax bill, to tax bank circulation ten per centum on State banks, provides for transforming them into National banks. Also for the returns of income tax.

The senate non-concurred in striking from the free list iron bridges, machinery for mills, and agricultural implements.

The House exemption was agreed to placing cisterns, furnace & spinning machines, steam engines, grape wine and fruits, car springs and cordage on the free list. Apothecaries are not regarded as manufacturers. Rectifying distillers are to pay double the tax, or to suffer imprisonment for two years, and the apparatus to be forfeited. Every distiller is to give notice of the capacity of his distillery. Also of any change in any essential particular and to give bonds for compliance with the law. Every agent or manufacturer is to keep a package, knowing that the tax has not been paid, shall be imprisoned for not more than two years, besides incurring forfeiture. The unlawful removal of spirits from the place where they are distilled, is made punishable by a fine of double the amount of tax upon such liquors, and imprisonment for not less than three months. Bribing an officer of the internal revenue is to be punished by a fine not exceeding three times the amount offered, and imprisonment not exceeding three years. The person accepting the bribe will forfeit his place and be forever disqualified from holding office.

Collision on the Lake—Total Loss of a Propeller—No Lives Lost.

DETROIT, MICH., June 22.—A collision occurred early this a. m. at the mouth of Detroit river, between the propellor Cleveland, and the Northern Transportation Company's tug Mark Martin, towing down. The propellor was cut through and sunk in ten minutes. She will probably be a total loss. A large number of passengers on board were taken off by the tug. No lives were lost. ARMY AND NAVY PENSIONS.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Minister Bigelow's dispatch to Secretary Seward, recites that he had delivered Seward's dispatch to the French Minister for Foreign Affairs, who said: "The Imperial Government proclaimed its intention to retire from Mexico because it suited its convenience and interests to retire and for no other reason. When, therefore, it announced formally, not merely to the United States, but to all the world, that the army would be withdrawn from Mexico within a specified time, he thought it should be deemed sufficient. The Government made its declarations in good faith, and means to keep it. It means to withdraw its army within the time prescribed and it does not intend to take one or two hundred in the first detachment, and one or two hundred more in the second, leaving the great body of them to the last, though it had not deemed it necessary to specify with minuteness details of this kind, which depend upon exigencies and climatory considerations, of which it was the best and the only competent judge.

"This, his Excellency said, he wished I would say to our Government. I asked his Excellency if I had ever intimated to him any suspicion of the Emperor's intention to withdraw his army from Mexico in equal portions. He replied that I had. I then asked him if any other person authorized to speak in the name of my Government had done so. He said no, but he had read imputations of that kind in one of our papers. I replied in substance that the press was a law unto itself, and that we had better not accept it as a rule unto us, and as he asked me to communicate to my Government a formal answer to the joint resolution proposing the amendment, or as to the merits of the article which it submits though the executive department to the legislatures of the States, I deem it proper to observe that the steps taken by the secretary of State as detailed in the accompanying report are to be considered as purely ministerial, and in no sense whatever committing the Executive to an approval of the recommendation of the amendment to the State legislatures or to the people. CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 22, 1866.

SENATE.

Mr. Edwards, from the Committee on Commerce, reported adversely on two House bills, one authorizing the construction of a railroad from Washington to the northwest, and the other authorizing a railroad from Pittsburgh to Cleveland.

A bill providing for the sale of hospitals in which only twenty patients per diem are received, was passed.

The bill to grant lands in aid of the construction of the Kansas and Neosho Valley railroad was passed.

The tax bill was taken up at one o'clock.

The Senate, on motion of Mr. Pomeroy, concurred in the House amendment to a bill reserving a land grant to the Lansing and Traverse Bay railroad, and the bill goes to the President.

Mr. Edmunds, from the Committee on Commerce, reported adversely on a bill to establish a railroad between Washington and the Northwest, which recently came from the House. He said it was the opinion of the majority of the Committee that Congress had no constitutional power to pass a law authorizing the construction of a railroad through a State without the consent of that State. He felt it his duty to say he did not agree in this opinion. He also reported adversely on the bill of the House to authorize the construction of a railroad from Pittsburgh to Cleveland. The two reports were received, and the Committee was discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

The bill to grant lands in aid of the Kansas and Neosho Valley Railroad and completion to the Red river, was taken up, and after discussion was passed.

The tax bill was taken up at 10 o'clock, and its reading resulted from the point reached yesterday. A large number of provisions were considered and adopted. Two hundred and thirty-three pages were acted on out of two hundred and forty-four. This bill was then laid aside.

Two messages from the President, one in relation to the withdrawal of Austrian troops from Mexico, and another in relation to the recent Constitutional Amendment, were read.

Mr. Hendricks, on behalf of Mr. Johnson, who was absent, presented the minority report of the Committee of Fifteen.

Mr. Trumbull objected to the reception of the minority report, as a violation of the practice and precedent of the Senate.

Mr. Trumbull introduced a bill to enlarge the public grounds around the capitol, which was ordered to be printed.

The Senate, at 5 P. M., adjourned.

HOUSE.

On motion of Mr. Defrees, the Committee on Roads and Canals was discharged from further consideration of the bill to provide for the improvement of the wagon road from Nebraska to Virginia City, and the bill was laid on the table.

Mr. Schenck, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported a substitute for the Senate bill, making further provision for the establishment of an armory and arsenal of construction, deposit and repair on Rock Island, Illinois, and made a statement explanatory of the objects of the bill.

After some discussion by the House, the bill, which provides for bridging the Mississippi, was amended so as to provide against obstructing the river, and was then passed.

The House then proceeded to the consideration of reports upon private bills.

Mr. Perham reported adversely upon the House bill granting pensions to soldiers of the war of 1812. A discussion ensued during the morning hour, and the bill went over till next Friday, leaving a motion to recommit it with instructions to report a bill made by Mr. Miller pending. During the discussion Mr. Perham stated that such a bill would involve a annual expense to the government of ten million dollars.

The Speaker presented a message from the President in reference to the joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution, stating that it had been communicated by the Secretary of State to the Governors of the various States on the 16th of June, but that was a ministerial act, and not to be considered as involving the assent of the Executive to the proposed amendment.

Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, moved a reference of the message to the Judiciary Committee, but at the suggestion of Mr. Banks and others, he conceded that it had been once modified, for the re-consideration Committee, which was agreed to.

The House took up and passed a number of private bills from the Senate, most of them for granting pensions.

On motion of Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, the Senate bill to amend the act of April 9th, 1866, authorizing the sale of marine and other steamboats, was taken from the Speaker's table and passed.

Mr. Briggs offered a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the Judiciary Committee to inquire into the expediency of appointing a Commissioner, to be appointed in each district courts of the United States lately in rebellion, to charge grand juries especially to inquire as to the manner in which each participle as to the manner in which each participle participe abused and performing the duties of offices, who have been disqualified from holding such offices on account of participation in the rebellion, or giving aid and comfort and meaning of the act prescribing such oath.

Mr. Washburne, from the Judiciary Committee, reported back, from the Committee on Privileges, the bill to provide for the revision and consolidation of the statutes of the United States, which was read a few times and passed.

Mr. Rousseau, from the Committee on Military Affairs, asked leave to report back the bill directing the Secretary of the Treasury to pay Allen Saunderson, widow of Col. Saunderson, Provost Marshal General of Missouri, $10,000 as compensation for special labor and service of her husband in detecting and exposing an organized conspiracy in the loyal states against the Government of the United States. He made a statement explanatory of the bill.

Mr. Shellabarger testified to the inestimable services rendered by Col. Saunderson in exposing the Indiana conspiracy, and alleged his death was the result of his great labors.

Mr. Benjamin objected to the bill being reported at this time.

Mr. Donnan introduced again a resolution to enable discharged soldiers to change their names by petition to the Legislature. It was read twice and referred to the Committee on Public Lands. It provides that when soldiers have made the selection of homesteads while in the service of the United States, through agents, and whose selection prove on examination not to be satisfactory, that they may, later on, select other lands, and upply the fees already paid upon a new selection.

The House, at 4 o'clock, adjourned.

FROM KENTUCKY.

Adjournment of Presbytery—Convention of Railroad Commissioners.

LOUISVILLE, June 22.—The Old Louisville Presbytery adjourned after four days' session. This body proceeded, irrespectively of the General Assembly, to adjudicate the Walnut street Church case, ignoring the edicts enforced by the assembly. They also sent to their Commissioners at St. Louis as their own, and proceeded throughout to the ground that from the time their delegates were elected, the assembly had no jurisdiction over them, and its acts so far as concerns this Presbytery are a usurpation. A majority of a decided two to one sustain the action, withdrew and formed another Presbytery, which adjourned after denouncing the Old Presbytery and warning the people against them.

The Railroad Commissioners from Charleston and Louisville met here and had conference with the officers of the Louisville and Nashville railroad. Speeches by Trenholm, ex-Confederate Secretary, Col. Reed, and others, were delivered. The general prospects of a continuous road hence to Charleston, via Knoxville, are flattering.

LAFAYETTE, N. C., June 22.—Laws, the excised General who was recently elected Clerk of the Superior Court of Richmond county, has received an order from General Tillson, commanding the State, forbidding him to hold or exercise any civil or political office. The order was similar to that served on Semmes by the Secretary of War.

An Elopement—A Wife Runs Off From Her Husband, After Robbing Him of $275.

A man named Robert Meanes appeared before Alderman Donaldson yesterday and on oath duly administered, stated that he was a resident of Greenville, Mercer Co., Pa., where he was married some two years since to a woman some ten years his junior. They had lived frugally and happily together for the first year after their marriage, when nature blessed them with a bouncing boy, and kind fortune left them in possession of some real estate worth $500. At this time a man named William McManus made the acquaintance of the twain, and in a short time after became intimate with Meanes' wife, who seemed to relish his society, inasmuch as she managed to spend a considerable portion of her time in it. The husband was not of a jealous temperament, and therefore took no notice of the affair until Thursday morning when he discovered that his wife had mysteriously disappeared, having taken with her $75 in "greenbacks," and the child which he claims to be their mutual property.

On instituting inquiry he discovered that M'Manus was also missing, and subsequently learned that the latter in company with his wife and offspring had taken the cars a few hours before for this city. He immediately started in pursuit and arrived here yesterday, when he made search for the missing ones without success. He said, in conclusion, that he did not want his wife, was willing to let her go where, and with whom, she pleased, but he was very anxious to gain possession of the child and "greenbacks." The Alderman issued a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Meanes and M'Manus, the former of whom is charged with larceny and the latter with adultery.

SPECIAL SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE.

It is understood that Governor CURTIN, as soon as he shall receive official notification of the passage of the Reconstruction amendment, will call a special session of the Legislature to pass upon it. This session may be expected to commence about the middle of July.

THE FIELD OF CONTEST.

Directly the project of an European conference was abandoned Prussian troops occupied Holstein. This is the most northern State of Germany, on the west washed by the North sea, and on the east by the Baltic. On the north it is bounded by the river Eider, which separates it from Schleswig. On the south and southwest, it is separated from the Kingdom of Hanover by the Elbe, and its southeastern frontier is coterminous with the duchy of Lauenburg. It has an area of 3,333 square miles, and a population of 530,000. In religion the inhabitants are mainly Lutherans; though among them are 200 Menonites, 550 Calvinists, 850 Catholics, and 3,500 Jews. The surface is nearly level, while the midland portion consists of an undrained plateau of sand. The slopes towards the Baltic are well wooded and plentifully drained by rivers. Along the Elbe and the west coast, the lowlands are fruitful, carefully tended, and produce abundantly, of wheat, buckwheat, potatoes, turnips, hops, hemp, flax, and timber. This section is also famous for fine animals, horses as well as cattle—the former especially prized for heavy cavalry service. Begirt with waters, a large proportion of the men are expert seamen. Education is liberally encouraged, and hence the people are intelligent as well as enterprising.

Thirty odd years ago a constitution uniting Holstein and Schleswig under a representative system common to the other provinces of Denmark was granted by Frederick VI, of that kingdom. But on the death of Frederick VII, in 1863, the male line failed in that branch, and the Duke of Augustenberg set up pretensions to the heirship, which were doubtless valid. Prussia undertook the enforcement of his claim by military intervention. Austria and other Germanic powers followed this lead, and after a brief campaign, Holstein, Schleswig and Lauenburg were taken. The conquest was confirmed by treaty, to Prussia and Austria jointly. By agreement between the two latter powers, Prussia ruled Schleswig and Austria Holstein. Now Prussia has moved for the purpose of driving Austria out, and consolidating all three of the duchies with her own territory.

It is not believed either by statesmen or captains that Austria will seriously resist the movement. The expectation is that she will invade the Prussian province of Silesia. Indeed, military dispositions, already taken, indicate that such is her intention.

Silesia is elliptically shaped, its longest diameter from northwest to southwest being 230 miles, and its shortest 100 miles. It is the highest province in Germany, lying as a sort of crown on that part of Europe, half girt with mountains, and sloping to the north and east. To the north is that Brandenburg and Posen; to the east Prussian Poland and Austrian Galacia; to the south Austrian Silesia; to the southwest Bohemia; and to the west Saxony. A buttress of mountain ranges, sweeping round in a curve from the northwest, guard it from Austria. From this high land rivers flow to all the seas; the Morawa into the Black; the Elbe into the Atlantic; the Oder dividing the country into halves; and the Vistula emptying into the Baltic. The province contains 20,000 square miles, and 3,500,000 inhabitants—about equally divided in religion between the Protestant and Catholic communions; intermingled with whom are a few Jews.

In the tenth century Silesia passed under the sway of the Dukes of Poland. In the thirteenth century it submitted spontaneously to the feudal sovereignty of the King of Bohemia. After the death of WENASLAUS the Bohemians elected for their kings princes from the house of Luxemburg, down to 1440, when they began to take princes of the house of Hapsburg or Austria. In 1541 FERDINAND of Austria was made hereditary king of Bohemia, including Silesia. Upon the death of CHARLES VI. in 1740, FREDERIC II. set up a claim, by no means well founded, to Silesia, and wrenched it from the possession of MARIA THERESA. It was a province, stolen from a woman by an audacious soldier.

This province is rich in minerals, and in manufactures of linen, cotton, woolens, iron, paper, leather, glass, porcelain, &c. Its people are busy with many trades, at which the workers are expert. Upon them Austria designs to force the horrors of war, to redress a wrong endured for one hundred and twenty-six years. Nor is the point of attack dictated purely by traditional considerations. It is situated near to Austria, and hence she can operate there with much greater prospect of success than by accepting the direct issue in Holstein.

A GEORGIA journal holds this language:

"We hold that there is absolutely no obligation on any State in the Federal Union to be what is termed 'loyal' to the Government of that Union, be that State in the North or in the South, or known by the name of either Massachusetts or Florida, South Carolina or Wisconsin. The thing is a free will thing altogether. The South has a future before her, and if now cast in the pit by strong and wicked brethren will yet, some day, like Joseph, come to bear away in a mighty land. First and foremost to do so, her record must be pure. Strict, stern, unwavering republicanism must be her rule. She must sail under no false colors, and neither affect a penitence or a devotion that she does not feel."

Does such talk as this invite the confidence of loyal men? Is it a wonder that Radicals, or any other class of men endowed with common sense, fail to perceive that people who so speak are fit to be admitted to participation in the control of the

EQUALITY IN TAXATION.

Some days ago we submitted observations on the necessity and justice of making property in national securities liable to taxation for all purposes, the same as other forms of property. We showed that the net income derived from interest on government bonds constituted a large proportion of all the net gains in the country, and that both the capital and its increase was mainly exempted from taxation.

When these loans were created the government felt constrained to offer special inducements to have them taken; or, rather, felt obliged to concede such conditions as capitalists exacted. A saving clause, however, was introduced, to the effect that the government might call in and cancel these obligations in three or five years. The idea was that shortly after the conclusion of peace the government would be strong enough to make its own terms, that is, would be able to raise all the money necessary for its purposes, without creating a privileged class who should enjoy the protection of the government, in all its ramifications, of national, state, county, city, township, and what not, without bearing burdens in common with their fellow-citizens.

The time is approaching, if it has not already come, when the government must adopt a policy in respect to new loans for the cancelment of old ones. Capitalists are urging the continuance for thirty years of comparative exemption on government bonds and the interest accruing thereon. No such exemption is necessary to secure what money the government is in need of. Such exemption is wrong in principle, and ought to create dissatisfaction among the people. It cannot fail being popularly regarded as unjust and oppressive. The people are willing to bear any burdens that may be necessary to sustain the government. But the continuance of this exemption is not in that category. It is favoritism to the rich, because they are rich.

These views are fully confirmed by a letter from Chief Justice CHASE, which we published yesterday. If there are any advocates of special exemptions to capitalists among our readers they will do well to peruse what Mr. CHASE offers on the point.

CONVENTION OF YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS.

The twelfth annual meeting of this body, composed of delegates from every Evangelical Christian Church in the United States and British Provinces, met in Albany, N. Y., some days since, Hon. R. H. Pruyn, late United States Minister to Japan, presided on the first day. The Convention was permanently organized by the election of Mr. T. Miller, of Cincinnati. Report of Executive Committee showed that while much good was being done in some cities, there was great room for increased effort in many of the towns and cities. After a reading of an able essay on "What part have we in the Temperance work?" the following questions were discussed: 1. What is the true aim of Young Men's Christian Associations, and the primary field of labor? 2. How shall the distinctive aim of these associations be best kept before its members? 3. How can unconverted young men be best brought into, and interested in, these associations?

On the fifth day the Rev. Mr. Vincent, pastor of a Presbyterian church in Troy, N. Y., read an essay on Religion and Amusement. The Boston Recorder says he advocated the introduction of cards, billiards, dancing and bowling alleys, in the rooms of Young Men's Christian Associations. This, it is stated, to some extent, has been done in Troy. It will surprise many of our readers to learn that the successor to the pulpit of the distinguished, widely known and venerable Rev. Dr. Beman, has given utterance to such views so entirely at variance with the practice of the denomination with which that church is connected. The next day, Rev. Dr. Darling, of Albany, delivered an able speech on the other side. He expressed his approval of the spirit of the essay, and his conviction that

"Religion never was designed
To make our pleasures less."

Still he affirmed that the teachings of the essay were unsound, scripturally erroneous and practically dangerous. Others followed on the same side, and finally resolutions were passed which favored such amusements as are not incompatible with the spirit of Christianity, and the subordination of those to the personal, spiritual welfare of young men. The following resolution speaks for itself: That we bear our energetic testimony against dancing, card and billiard playing, as so distinctively wordly in their associations, and unspiritual in their influence, as to be utterly inconsistent with our professions as the disciples of Christ. The Convention adjourned on the sixth day.

REFORMED DUTCH CHURCH.

The General Synod of this denomination met in New York on the 6th instant, and adjourned on the 14th. Brief mention has already been made to the opening of its sessions. Among the important matters before the body was a circular from Rev. S. R. Bowen, at Yokahama, Japan, asking their co-operation and prayers that Japan might be more freely opened to the missionaries. The circular stated the young men of rank there are being instructed in the English language by the missionaries, at the desire of the Government, and while much good is being accomplished in this way, the old laws, which are exceedingly severe, are still in force, prohibiting the teachings of Christianity in the Empire. A committee was appointed to examine into the expediency of dropping the word "Dutch" from the name of the Church, so as to be known hereafter as the Reformed Protestant Church. Committee to prepare a paper on a Sabbath School Hymn and Tune Book were continued. Action was taken with a view to the extension of the church interests in New York. All games of chance, and the evils which naturally flow from them, were strongly condemned, and Consistories were enjoined to discountenance and prevent the use of lotteries in the disposing of goods at chance fairs. Information from the South has convinced the Synod that there was no opening at present for the extension of the Reformed Church in that direction, except among the freedmen, and it was deemed expedient to pursue the work among them merely as a missionary work. The Synod adjourned to meet in Geneva, the first Wednesday of June, 1867.

GOV. MORTON, in his Indianapolis speech, said:

"And here let me address a word to the young men of Indiana. You are just starting in life, with the world all before you, where and how to choose. Beware how you connect your fortunes with a decayed and dishonored party, indelibly stained with treason, and upon whose tombstone the historian will write: "False to liberty, false to its country, and false to the age in which it lived." The Democratic party has committed a crime for which history has no pardon, and the memories of men no forgetfulness; whose colors grow darker from age to age, and for which the execrations of mankind become more bitter from generation to generation."

JUDGE GREER, after reaching Williamsport, was attacked by paralysis, on the right side, so badly that he is unable to at-

SPEAKING of the Reconstruction Amendment, the Frankfort (Ky.) Commonwealth says:

"The third section is not a whit too severe. It merely incapacitates such as have violated their oaths to support the Constitution of the United States, from holding office in the future. Even this incapacity may be removed by act of Congress. And we doubt not that on the slightest exhibition of penitence for the late wrong doing of the rebellion, a full forgiveness will be freely accorded. Nor can it be doubted that the utter absence of this spirit, and per contra, a justification on the part of the South of their treasonable actions, has strengthened the feeling that treason must thus be made odious. We believe that the peace and security of the Union require the partial disfranchisement proposed in the Amendment. Oaths having been violated and no acknowledgement of or repentance therefor having been made or manifested, there is no security for their sanctity remaining inviolate in the future. And the nation must punish the perjured among her servants."

COE'S DYSPEPSIA CURE is prepared by the originator of the justly celebrated "Cough Remedy." Mr. Coe has after prepared a medicinal article for public and general use that will stand the strongest tests, and has always borne the palm of victory over every disease it has been certified to cure. Will you who are suffering from dyspepsia, indigestion, nausea, sick headache, cholera morbus, dysentery, and general debility of the whole system, try but a single bottle? We will never urge you again if we fail in this case. Our own knowledge of its merits, the united testimony of all who have ever tried it, the encomiums of hundreds of our own neighbors, your duty to yourself, and the beneficial results, as certain as sunshine, all urgently, persistently urge you to try just one bottle. If what we say is not correct—if our statements concerning its wonderful virtues are not found to be true—if you do not say that the operation of the medicine is instantaneous and perfectly wonderful—we will renounce our profession as quacks to the public health, and retire from the field, admitting that we are incompetent to compound a medicinal preparation which would be entitled to your confidence.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Additional Local Matters on First Page.

The Gazette.—Persons leaving the city during the summer, can have the GAZETTE mailed to them by leaving their address at our counting room.

Dr. Howard's Address.

Our citizens were seldom so embarrassed in making choice, as on Thursday evening last. There were all the charms of beauty, refined by intelligence and graceful accomplishments, to draw toward Christ Church; there was the great organ at the Cathedral, in its hands, pealing forth its majestic tones; and then, not to make our list too long, we are told of a good time, in a social way, at the Plymouth Church. Upon all this they had to turn their backs who resorted to Mozart Hall on that evening, to listen to the address of Rev. W. D. Howard, D. D. of this city, and it is enough to say for the entertainment afforded them that we are confident not one left regretting his choice.

After prayer by the Rev. Mr. Scoville, of the First Presbyterian Church, the Doctor, announced by Mr. R. Rogers, chairman of the committee of the two literary societies of the Western University, presented his address. The subject he had chosen was "Influence." His treatment of it was so methodical and clear that it is easy enough to give an outline of his thoughts, but the difficulty your reporter meets is in the fact that the filling out of this outline was so admirable that but scanty justice can be done to the address in its absence, while yet our limits confine us to a few words. To begin, in a half dozen paragraphs, the substance of a production of this sort, that was all substance, is an undertaking that seems wanting to defy the doctrine of the incompressibility of matter.

The first question discussed was, What is influence? The word is applied in physics. Thus, we speak of the influence of the solar heat in unbinding nature's vegetative forces; of the influence of sensibility, whereby, especially, is its concentrated power exhibited in public assemblies, the feeling of one man becomes another's, almost if not quite apart from the original occasion of the feeling; of a Divine influence such that doubtless no mine exists, in heaven, earth or hell, that is not in some way impressed by the Divine Mind; of moral influence, put forth by all rational beings,—God the centre of all holy agencies, angels in their unseen and gentle but mighty ministry, men, all men, all classes, every condition, every grade of character, every age, not excepting the infant smiling or sleeping in its mother's arms. It is this moral influence, of course, that the speaker had in view as the topic of his address.

It is extensive. As a pebble dropped in mid ocean sends its concentric waves on and on till they wash the shores of the globe, so the slightest act of moral force moves, in its measure, the whole vast sea of society.

It is inescapable. It is not to the whirlwind or the earthquake, but rather in the dew or the unseen cords of gravitation that we would compare it.

It is unalterable. No human force can equal it. Hence the ambition of men to possess themselves of its power. Witness its agency in revolutions to content ourselves with a view simply of the powers now at work at the very moment of these crises, but remember how far back among the dead an investigation of this sixty-second minute operative there will lead you. Illustrations were given in the exhuming of Christianity in the sixteenth century, and such as are suggested by names like those of Cromwell, Baxter, Shakespeare, Lord Bacon, Newton, Napoleon, and Washington, in the various spheres of human activity. To such men as these, the absence of means was of no significance. They created them; rather, they exerted an influence that without them was adequate to all emergencies.

Wartburg, said the reverend gentleman, could not shut within its castle walls the influence that was shaking the foundations of the Papacy. So Washington in his tent, writing his despatches, was exerting an influence that was felt throughout the continent and that leaped the ocean to declare itself beyond. Napoleon lived in Paris, Vienna, St. Petersburg, London and Berlin all the same moment; yes, and he still lives in the sweep and stroke of his irresistible influence upon the present policy of Europe.

How abiding is influence, was strikingly and ingeniously shown in the power exerted by the Homeric conception of Achilles, as directly or indirectly marking the characters and shaping the careers of Alexander, Cæsar, Charles XII, of Sweden and Solyman I.

But good influence is no less lasting. He traced the origin of the British and Foreign Bible society, with its issue of 40,000,000 copies of the scriptures to an humble village pastor in Wales, and, reading back on the line of the history of modern missions, we come to an humble New England mother's great thought of what the gospel ought to do and could do for a lost world.

The second question discussed regarded the elements of a national influence. These were shown to include good morals, a faith being really what his morals are, the same being true of a nation. This point was amply illustrated from the rich stores of historic learning evinced by all the Doctor's command. Mentioning the leading men of some of the most stirring times in history, he said these men made the age what they themselves were, and on the other hand, the age was such as to call just such men to a forward station.

Last space was shown to constitute both to the quality and the force of influence. This, in combination with Truth, gives a power that moulds society and makes as well as writes history. Thus, we speak of the attuning of the intellect and heart genius a sort of omnipotent energy independent of all means, was happily shown. The address was closed with an earnest appeal to the young men present to furnish themselves well for the warfare of life from the armory of Truth in all its spheres, scientific, political and religious, in full consciousness of the immeasurable and ceaseless influence each one cannot fail to exert for weal or for woe.

The audience was dismissed with the benediction.

Common Pleas Court.

Hon. Thomas Mellon presiding.

FRIDAY, June 22.—In the case of W. B. Taylor vs. W. B. Kovar (reported yesterday), the jury found a verdict for the defendant.

James I. Richardson vs. The Adams Express Company. This was an action brought to recover one hundred and thirty-four dollars, the value of a package of Government papers shipped by the plaintiff, per "The Adams Express Company," from Pittsburgh, Pa., to St. Louis, Mo., about the 1st of May, 1865, and which, as alleged, was never received by the plaintiff. The defendants admitted the receipt of the package, but pleaded the non-delivery of several of their employees, and the books of the office at Cincinnati, Ohio, that the package in question had been duly received at Cincinnati, on the 5th of May, 1865, and was forwarded to St. Louis on the evening of the same day. On the night of the 5th of May, 1865, between eight and nine o'clock, the train was thrown from the track about sixteen miles from Cincinnati, by a rail having been misplaced, and immediately the entrances to the different cars were taken charge of by armed and uniformed men, presumed to be Kentucky bushwackers, and a body (numbering six) of persons, armed, entered the Express car in which the package was. Drawing their revolvers, they compelled the Express messengers to deliver up the two safes, one for Cincinnati and one for St. Louis, in his possession, which they proceeded to blow open with powder, and afterwards abstracted all the money and valuables contained therein, among which, it is alleged, were the Government vouchers of Mr. Richardson, the plaintiff. The Court instructed the jury to find a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $137,50, subject to the opinion of the Court on a point of law reserved.

A Police Officer in Trouble.—John Lutz was brought before Mayor McCarthy yesterday, charged with assault and battery, on oath of M. A. Nave. It appears that Nave and several others were indulging in a free fight at the Red Lion Hotel, on St. Clair street, a few nights ago, when Lutz, who is a police officer, arrested Nave and brought him before Alderman Humbert, who held him to bail for his appearance at court. The conduct of Lutz aroused the ire of Nave, who considered himself injured to some extent, and therefore had Lutz arrested as stated. After a hearing the latter was held in $500 bail to answer.

Alleged Horse Thief Committed.—Samuel Reed alias George Smith, residing in the neighborhood of Monongahela City, Washington county, arrested on Thursday morning by officers William Bowden and Jerry Smith, on Federal street, Allegheny, on a charge of having stolen a horse (which he had in his possession at the time) from Capt. Peeples, residing near Perrysville, was yesterday finally committed for trial by Mayor Morrison. Several horses have been stolen from the same neighborhood, and Reed, otherwise Smith, is supposed to be the thief.

Allegheny Soldiers' League.—A preliminary meeting of the Union soldiers who were engaged in the recent war for nationality was held last night. Lieut. Col. George W. Dawson was called to presside, and Joseph E. Robinson appointed secretary. On motion, a committee, consisting of Messrs. Robert Wallace, Matthew Grant and John Ross were appointed to prepare a constitution and by-laws to govern the League. Col. Dawson and Joseph E. Robinson were appointed to engage a hall for the League to meet in, after which they adjourned.

Throwing Rotten Vegetables.—John Flinn, Street Commissioner of the Second District, assisted Henry Freese, the proprietor of a grocery store on Wylie street, for nuisance, before Alderman Morrow, yesterday. The nuisance consisted in Freese allowing an employee to cast rotten vegetables into the street. After paying the costs, which amounted to two dollars, and promising not to offend again, the defendant was discharged.

Malicious Mischief.—Peter Foley was arrested and brought before Mayor McCarthy yesterday, charged with malicious mischief on oath of Hannah Snyder. Hannah keeps a drinking saloon on Fourth street, the doors of which Peter, in a fit of maudlin rage, broke with bowlders, causing a damage to the premises to the extent of one hundred and fifty dollars. A hearing will be had in the case to-morrow.

Drove too Fast.—Patrick Martin, employed by M. Bravo, the spice manufacturer in the Diamond, to drive a spice wagon, was arrested and brought before Alderman Humbert on oath of Hannah Snyder. Hannah keeps a yesterday, charged with trotting his team over the new suspension bridge, in violation of law. Martin paid five dollars fine and was discharged. The Company are determined to prosecute all persons similarly offending.

Surety of the Peace.—Amelia Morgan yesterday appeared before Justice Lipp and made an information a. inst Annie Birdsall for surety of the peace. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused.

Held to Bail.—Jane Lunstan made an information against Lon Behrman for surety of the peace before Justice Lipp yesterday. The accused was arrested and held to bail for his appearance at Court.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Progress of the Tariff Bill—Increased Duty on Imported Cigars and Foreign Wool—Condition of Affairs at Memphis—The Reissue of Lost Coupon Bonds—Important Decision—The Case of Provost Marshal Fry.

NEW YORK, June 22.—The Ways and Means Committee are holding daily sessions, and hope to complete the tariff bill by saturday. They are said to have agreed on recommending an increase of fifty per cent. on the duty on imported cigars, wines and liquors, and will probably add cayenn and one-half cents per pound to the present tax on imported wool. An equal increase on all imported woolen fabrics would in this case be also necessary.

The question of giving sixty or ninety days notice for the proposed tariff bill is provoking discussion. The general tariff of 1857 went into execution from and after the day of its passage. All special tariff bills, except that of July, 1862, also went into immediate operation, though some of them were quite general in their character, and that of April, 1864, was entirely so. Since the commencement of the war all previous affecting our importations have taken effect from the day of their passage—that of July, 1862, of which a very short notice was given.

The Senate bill, which passed the House to-day by a vote of seventy-two to forty-one, will undoubtedly be killed in the Senate.

Mr. Washburne, from the Congressional Committee to investigate the Memphis affairs, in private conversation reports that a deplorable bad condition of things exists in Memphis. The temper and feeling of the people is as bad if not worse than at any previous period since the outbreak of the rebellion. He believes that nothing but a strong military government will preserve peace in that district for years to come.

The Committee on claims to-day reported a case in which certain claims are considered in certain respects for the re-issue of lost coupon bonds. It appears that a gentleman of Maine lost a $500 bond, but subsequently recovered it in a mutilated and damaged condition, together with thirteen of the coupons. He asks Congress to authorize the Secretary to re-issue the bond and coupons. The Committee recommend that on the surrender of the mutilated bond, a new one to be issued without coupons, that the thirteen coupons attached to the old bond be held valid, and that they cannot authorize the re-issue of the coupons supposed to be lost, for there is no evidence but that they may still be in existence. The last point settled several matters in applications for the re-issue of lost coupon bonds where the applicants cannot give satisfactory proof of their total destruction. The House agreed to the above report.

The Conkling-Fry Investigation Committee have closed the evidence, and Mr. Sheinbarger, the Chairman, is engaged in writing their report. There has been a good deal of important information elicited in regard to the manner in which Fry carried on the Provost Marshal's office, and also in reference to the bounty-jumping business generally. Most of the evidence will be very damaging to the head of that bureau.

Daring Bank Robbery—Sixty-Seven Thousand Dollars Stolen—The Cashier Locked in the Vault.

PORTLAND, ME., June 22.—The village National Bank of Bowdoinham was robbed last night by a party of men who followed the Cashier home, gagged his family, and placed a guard over them. The robbers then took the Cashier back to the bank, and after robbing the vaults of their contents, amounting to about sixty-seven thousand dollars, they locked him in the vault, and made their escape with their plunder. They have been traced to Topsham, and it is supposed are now making for Canada.

The War Begun in Europe.

NEW YORK, June 22.—The London Daily News says the Prussians have crossed the Elder, and the Austrians have fallen back. By this means the King secures the means of exercising the sovereignty to which he lays claim in Holstein, and puts it out of the power of the Emperor to hinder him. If, then, the pulitical concerts define war, and the issue by which we prosecute our rights by force, the war has begun, although a shot has not been fired.

The drawn numbers will be published in the Chicago daily papers as soon as drawn, and when the drawing is over each page is will be furnished with a complete list of the drawn numbers.

In view of the above reasons, which we hope will prove eminently satisfactory,

FINANCE AND TRADE.

FRIDAY, June 22, 1866.

Since the decline and inactivity in the gold market, [illegible] again turning their attention to government bonds and other securities. The rapid change in the value of bonds, and the great number of short loans out naturally lead the capitalist, as well as those of more limited means, to the inquiry, in what shall we invest in order to realize a paying interest, and at the same time have an opportunity to sell without sacrificing the principal as well as the interest. We say 7-30 bonds are the best and most reliable security to invest in, particularly for those who may have occasion to use their money before the loans become due. It does not matter what the principal rates are in the market; if 7-30's decline, so will 5-20's and all the rest with the exception of old 5-20's, which depend on the European demand and the rates of gold and exchange. Seven Thirties always bring the full accrued interest, which is not the case with the gold bonds, as the interest there is always included in the value of the bonds. These bonds touched 103 to-day, the highest point they have ever touched. Old 5-20s command about 103; new ditto, 102½; 1881's, 110½, and 10-40's, 96½@96¾.

Gold opened at 145¾, declined to 145¼, and closed at 145¾. There are large amounts of gold being offered for sale, and this, without the market takes some unexpected freak, will have a tendency to depreciate it still further. Railroad stocks were quoted in New York to-day, according to Mr. P. R. Mertz's dispatches, as follows: Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 85¼; Pittsburgh & Fort Wayne, 98¾; Chicago & Northwestern, 29¼; Erie, 50.

Our local money market continues very stringent, and the great proportion of the business paper in Bank is now being renewed, which parties, who rely on Bank accommodations, causes great inconvenience and loss.

Columbia Oil stock is in demand and held pretty firmly, in anticipation of a handsome dividend in July. At Sheriff's sale, 30,000 shares of Union Lubric sold to-day at ten cents and there were no sale yesterday of 500 shares Marine Oil Stock at 2 per share.

—The Secretary of the Treasury reports to Congress that his sales, exchanges and purchases for Government account since Jan. 1, 1866, have been:

	Amount.	Profit to Gov.
Sales of gold	$50,495,000	$16,381,415
Purchases, bonds	3,500,000	135,387
Funding 5-20's	22,750,000	665,349

The Five Twenties were sold or exchanged for Seven Thirties and Compound Notes and Greenbacks, at an average rate to the Government of nearly 103 per cent. A Washington telegraph adds:

"In the bond transaction Jay Cooke Co., were employed for the negotiation of the exchanges was rendered necessary by the low rates to which Seven Thirties had fallen, rendering it impossible to fund the indebtedness through the usual Seven Thirties were kept at par. These transactions were conducted at a profit to the Government of about $1,000,000, besides placing the Seven Thirties above par, and increasing the price of all other Government Securities."

—The New York Tribune, of Thursday, says:

According to Secretary McCulloch, he has sold since Jan. 1, 1866, $50,495,000 in gold—a sum equal to 7 per cent. interest on $670,000,000 of six per cent gold-bearing bonds. It instead of "selling" existing Government stocks, and making one million of dollars, the Department had issued $800,000,000 of 40-year six per cent bonds, and offered them in exchange for legal tenders, compound certificates and temporary loans, the currency would now be in a sounder condition, the Treasury Department upon an easier footing, gold cheaper, and the industrious country more profitably employed. A great blunder has been made in entertaining the idea that the enormous cost of the specie can be funded into a long five per cent bond in a country where the people in active business scramble for capital at 5 to 12 per cent. The sooner this idea is dismissed the better. Figuring results are intended by the Department. The five per cent capitalists being out of the market, the sooner the six per cent people are appealed to the better. If Mr. McCulloch would spare himself the trouble of paying in currency the maturing compounds and Seven Thirty notes.

—It is reported that the Boston capitalists are buying up the bonds of the Pittsburgh, Maysville and Cincinnati railroad, which was chartered about three years ago to be completed from Pittsburgh to Maysville. The bonds were issued, but owing to the road being only partially built and the work suspended, they have been almost entirely worthless for a number of years. Those who buy the bonds of course look forward to the possible completion of the road.

—It has been received from nearly all the national depositories, in reply to the circular some time ago sent out by the House Committee on Banking Currency. They show that on the 1st of May, there was in the depositories an aggregate to the credit of the government of about $230,000,000, of which something like $41,000,000 was due to disbursing agents, and the balance, $190,000,000, was subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States.

New York Stock and Money Market.

NEW YORK, June 22.—The money market continues in the same easy position as for some time past, call loans 3 per cent. on government. The Discount market is dull, and prime paper passes at 9@10 ₱ cent. The market for Sterling is quiet and the quotations are merely nominal. There was a general feeling of depression in the Produce Exchange today and lower prices were made for breadstuffs and provisions.

The gold market was a little stronger towards the close, and rallied to 145¾@145⅞. The Government securities were dull and steady this afternoon. The following are the closing prices. At the second regular and session board the dealings were more active on Erie and Erie, but the balance of the market was dull and without any new feature to notice. There is some talk on the street of Erie being unable to meet the bears' contracts, and being compelled to cover their outstanding contracts at higher prices, but the leading bears for the present are selling Erie freely at 50 per cent., and other parties are doing the same at the afternoon board. United States were steady and in demand, but the other Petroleum shares were quiet. Among the Mining stock, consolidated Gregory and Downieville gold were active and higher with large transactions.

Stocks steady; Michigan Central, preferred, 40½; Pittsburgh and Fort Wayne, 98¾; Chicago and Rock Island, 95; Cleveland and Toledo, 105¾; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 84¾; Chicago and Northwestern, 29¼; do preferred, 58¾; Michigan Southern, 79; Hudson, 111¾; Reading, 101½; Erie, 49½; New York Central, 98¾; Boston Water Power, 41; Western Union Telegraph, 32¾; 5-20 Coupons, 102, 103¾; do '64, 103¾; 7-3-10s 1st series, 102½; 7-3-10s, 2nd series, 102¾; Atlantic, 153; Tennessee 6s, 100; Ohio and Mississippi Certificates, 27½.

The Post's money article says: The only thing worthy of notice in the Stock market is the suspense and paralysis which seems to have invaded all departments of business. This is attributed to the unsettled condition of European affairs and the prevailing desire to wait for further news, which, no doubt, will be better than the last, while others are less sanguine. The Loan market is easy at 4@6 per cent. on call; commercial paper is quiet, at 5½@7 per cent. The Stock market is steady, but offering no features of special interest. After the Board Erie sold for 50¼. Before the first regular session New York Central was quoted at 99; Erie, 49¾; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago, 98¾.

Sales were made at the four o'clock board to-day as follows—Canton Co. 56¾; Quicksilver, 50¾; New York Central, 98½; Chicago and Northwestern, 57½; Chicago and Northwestern preferred, Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago, 98¾.

Gold closed firm at 145¾; the borrowing rate is from ⅛ to ¼ in favor of lenders.

Chicago Cattle Market.

CHICAGO, June 21.—The following are the receipts and shipments of Beef Cattle for the current week, according to the returns of the Board of Trade, and for the corresponding period of last week:

	Receipts.	Shipments
Monday	257	1,075
Tuesday	326	527
Wednesday	1,027	503
Thursday	1,942	342
Total this week	3,552	3,344
Same time last week	3,482	2,701

The fresh receipts of beef cattle to-day at the Union stock yards are 63 cars, with others en route. Entered last evening, 1,386 head, at prices ranging from $6@9.75 for common steers and cows; $8.50@9.50 for fair to good shipping steers, and from $7.75@8.75 for good to choice shipping heeves. The market is moderately active under a brisk shipping demand. Buyers from various eastern points are purchasing good choice steers, and for such fair prices are obtained. The heavy rain storm about 11 o'clock nearly suspended business for the time, but in the course of the afternoon considerable numbers will doubtless be done, as buyers seem disposed to take hold more freely than for some days.

Receipts of Produce at Tide Water.

The quantity of flour, wheat, corn and barley left at tide water during the second week in June, in the years 1865 and 1866, was as follows:

	Flour, bbls.	Wheat bu.	Corn bu.	Barley, bu.
1865	19,200	113,300	165,800	12,300
1866	11,000	147,000	855,700	5,200
Dec.	16,300	Inc. 33,700	Inc. 689,900	Dec. 7,000

The aggregate quantity of the same articles left at tide water from the commencement of navigation to the last of June, inclusive, during the years 1865 and 1866, was as follows:

	Flour, bbls	Wheat, bu.	Corn bu.	Barley, bu.
1865	113,200	661,200	397,000	126,500
1866	45,200	464,200	2,088,400	49,900
Dec.	68,100	Dec. 197,000	In. 1,588,700	Dec 76,600

By reducing the wheat to flour, the quantity of the latter left at tide water this year, compared with the corresponding period last year, shows a deficiency of 107,500 bbls flour.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, {
FRIDAY, June 22, 1866.

The general markets continues dull, and to some extent neglected, as the demand for the leading commodities is falling off, but nevertheless there is a fair business doing in a regular way, and, generally, prices are pretty well sustained.

GRAIN—Wheat is in good demand, with but little in market. Sale of 2 cars No. 2 Club at $2.20, and 7 cars No. 1 Club at $2.25. Oats—No. 1 Chicago is selling at 54@55, in elevator. Sale of 1100 bush prime Iowa Oats at 57, delivered on cars. Barley is quoted at 90 to $1 for fair to prime Spring. Rye is in better demand, and may be quoted firm at $1.00@1.05. Prime shelled Corn is selling on track at 80 to 81—sale of 1 car, in cars, at 79. Buckwheat is in fair demand at $2.25.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is firm, with a regular jobbing demand, and prices are well sustained. Sales at 15½@18 for Shoulders; 18@19 for Ribbed Sides, and 25 for Canvassed Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is quiet but firm at 22@23 for steamed and kettle—sales of country at 21. Mess Pork is dull but held firmly at $33.

FLOUR—The demand for Flour continues fair, and while the market is steady, prices have undergone no change. We continue to quote at at $10 to $11 for fair to good Spring Wheat Family; $11.25@11.75 for half spring and half Winter, $12.50@13 for all Winter, and $14@16 for fancy brands. Rye Flour is still quoted firm at $6.75.

MILL FEED—Sale of 1 car light Middlings at $1.40, and 1 car prime white ditto at $1.50. Shorts may be fairly quoted at $1.

EGGS—There is no lulling off in the demand and as the supply is comparatively light, prices are well sustained at 25—some holders asking 28.

HAY—Sale of 45 bales fair Timothy Hay on wharf at $24 per ton. Loose Hay is selling at rates at $25 to $30 per ton, as to quality.

DRIED FRUIT—Quarter Peaches are selling at 18 to 20c per lb—no halves in market. Apples are selling at 5@6, while prime bright, of which there are none here, would command 10@20.

POTATOES—Steady with a fair local demand but unchanged; sales in a regular way from store at $1.20@1.30 per bushel.

BUTTER—Fresh packed Butter is in fair demand on speculation, and we can report sales at 20@22.

CHEESE—Sales at 15 to 16 for Western Reserve, and 17@18 for Hamburg.

OIL—Sales of No. 1 Lard at $1.83@1.85.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, {
FRIDAY, June 22, 1866.

CRUDE—The transactions in Crude continue very limited, and the market is dull and depressed, though prices are nominally unchanged. Sales of 600 bbls in bulk, at 13¾; 400 bbls bulk (40 gravity) at 13½; 300 do (37 gravity) at 13¾; 200 at 13¾, packages included; 150 at 13¾; and 86 do at 13¾, free on board cars. The demand both for home consumption and shipment is very much restricted. Our refiners, merchants and jobbers are supplied, while shippers are holding off in anticipation of lower rates, and, besides, there are but few orders here for shipment. The receipts have fallen off materially, as compared with last week, but the amount of oil on the market is not as large as generally supposed, though there is no disguising the fact that the supply is somewhat in excess of the demand.

REFINED—There is a continued fair demand for bonded oil, both for present and future delivery, but prices show no improvement—in fact, the contrary is the case. We can report sales of 300 bbls to be delivered during the first twenty days of September at 43; 500 do, for same month, at 43; 500 for July, at 44; 2000 for August, buyer's option, at 42; and 500 light straw to white, on the spot, at 38—all to be delivered on the Philadelphia. The advices by the next foreign steamer (due at New York to-night) are anxiously awaited for, as the news, let it be what it will, is destined to make an impression either for good or evil, and in the quarters there is a disposition manifested to hold off and await the result. Free is still and entirely nominal.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil by the Allegheny River since our last report, were as follow:

T. Stockdale	1250	J. Gallagher	80
Slater & Co.	107	W. P. Logan	420
S. Wray	220	Miller & Edwards	9
Jas. Wilkins	35
Buffum & Kehew	168	Total	2341
Fisher & Bro	332

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET.

FRIDAY, June 22, 1866.

In pig metal the market has shown a high degree of acctivity during the past two weeks, especially in the medium grades. Good Mahoning Irons may be priced at $36@40, cash; Neutral Anthracite, $43 to $44; Foundry, $45 for No. 2, and $48 for No. 1. Forging Rock is selling at $50 to 55.

RIVER NEWS.

The river fell fully six inches at this point during the twenty-four hours, ending last evening, and was still receding steadily, with scant four and a half feet. The weather continues clear and warm, and very favorable for out-door business.

There has not been a single arrival from below since our last report, aside from the regular packets. The Leni Leoti arrived and departed for Parkersburg, as did also the Electra and Gallatin for Brownsville. The Forest City is due from Parkersburg this morning, and will return again at noon. The Revenue left for Portsmouth last evening, with a very fair trip.

The Camelia, from Cincinnati, may be expected to arrive here about Sunday night or Monday. The Argonaut left St. Louis, for Pittsburgh, on Wednesday.

The Fayette, Capt. Cox, and the Chieftan, Capt. Abrams, both first class steamers, are the regular packets for Brownsville to-day, leaving promptly at 5 o'clock p. m.

The Wauanita, Capt. Sinuman, will take her departure for St. Louis this afternoon. This boat is in excellent condition for business, having just been overhauled and repainted, and passengers and shippers will bear in mind that she leaves without fail.

The new steamer Lotus, Capt. Sheddin, is filling up rapidly for New Orleans, and as will be seen by reference to card, she is announced to leave this afternoon. The R. C. Gray, Capt. Anderson, is announced for St. Louis and St. Paul.

The steamer H. S. Turner arrived at Saint Louis Saturday, from Fort Sully, having made the quickest trip of the season, being only twenty-eight days from port to port, and lost six days by adverse circumstances. The Turner reports the following steamers at Fort Sully ready to leave the next day for Fort Benton, viz: Rocora, Cora, Ben. Johnson, Waverly, St. Johns, Lexington and Montana. The Montana receives $315 per day. The Cora, Waverly, St. Johns and Lexington, each $300 per day, and the Rubicon $400 per day. The Turner brought down a fine list of freight and passengers and is now at the landing loading for a return trip to Omaha, for which point she will leave on Tuesday. Captain Jas. Yore commands, with Mr. John D. Malin in the office.

THE STRIKE.—About a hundred black and white laborers collected about the dargstaff yesterday morning. A colored individual mounted a cannon and was about to harangue the crowd when he was ordered to desist by a policeman and obeyed. The only other demonstration that we heard of was that the friends of the cannon had his hat knocked over his eyes by a negro as he was passing the crowd, looking at his discharging book, totally unconscious of his proximity to the mob, who appeared to have a particular spite against the Camelia.—Cincinnati Gazette.

The Camelia left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Wednesday, and the Nora was advertised to follow on Thursday. The Commercial, of Thursday, says:

The Lone Floyd reports that all the side streams running out between here and Marietta, the Ohio having risen three feet at that point while she was there. A portion of the Camelia's cargo consists of 200 bbls of lard and 600 empty barrels. The Rapid Ann will arrive here from Pittsburgh on Monday morning. She leaves for Tennessee River direct. The Cairo editors attempted to hold a meeting yesterday morning on the levee, near the foot of Sycamore street, which proved a fizzle in point of numbers and desultory action. Capt. John S. Devinny, Supervising Inspector for this district, is in the city, on official business.
